

Initial formatting review criteria

The main document should:

1. Address a subject in line with the journal's aims.
2. Be limited to 5 000 words for scientific articles, 3 000 words for scientific or technological notes and 6 000 words for review articles.
3. Have consecutively numbered pages.
4. Have 2.5 cm margins on all four sides.
5. Use 12-point Times New Roman font and 1.5-line spacing.
6. Have continuously numbered lines in the left margin, except for tables and figures.
7. Have a title with a maximum of 15 words, with scientific names therein written between parentheses.
8. Have scientific and active ingredient names, among others, presented in accordance with the guide for authors.
9. Format author information in accordance with the guide for authors.
10. Include the ORCID identifier (<https://orcid.org>) of each author.
11. Provide author institutional affiliation with complete mailing address, email address and telephone number.
12. Include an abstract of up to 250 words for scientific articles and reviews, and 150 words for scientific or technological notes.
13. Use keywords in accordance with subject matter and the guide for authors.
14. List highlights in accordance with the guide for authors.
15. Include (if necessary) tables made in the Word processor table editor in accordance with the guide for authors.
16. Include (if necessary) equations made in the Word equation editor.
17. Avoid the use of the equation editor to insert symbols or variables within paragraphs of the manuscript (use the symbol insertion tool and present the variables in italics).
18. Use (if necessary) images of at least 300 ppi in resolution, a minimum of 945 x 945 pixels in size, and in JPG or TIFF format.
19. Display (if necessary) figures, graphs and flow charts as images, not as objects, and in accordance with the guide for authors.
20. Format references using the APA-7 standard.
21. Not use reference formatting (remove field codes).
22. Use fluent writing (low fog Index), which facilitates translation into Spanish.
23. Limit the length of paragraphs to 10 lines.
24. Not include text styles.
25. Present conclusions in accordance with the objectives and scope of the research.